

WBFS-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST OCTOBER 1 THROUGH DECEMBER 31, 2009

Attached are listings of broadcasts or broadcast segments that, in the Station's judgment, reflect the Station's most significant programming treatment of ascertained issues during the preceding three-month period. The Station also produced and broadcast a "Community Calendar" and public service announcements promoting local community events and campaigns.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA- A half-hour bi-weekly public affairs broadcast featuring panel discussions and interviews with community leaders, focusing on important issues of local concern. Broadcast dates and times as indicated in the report.

CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33- Special and series reports focusing on important local issues. These reports air during selected CBS4 News broadcasts on WBFS-TV. Duration: Each part is approximately under three minutes. Broadcast times and dates indicated in the report.

EDUCATION/FAMILY: Topics in this category include: food drive for families in need; help for victims of domestic violence; homes for children in foster care; help for people with disabilities; program donates furniture for needy children; Best Buddies program; holiday help for needy families; and holiday stockings for the military.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 10/4, 9 AM. Dale Hirsch, Executive Director of Volunteer Broward discussed their Field of Food campaign with the goal of collecting a million pounds of food to help South Florida families struggling financially during these tough economic times. 10/18, 10:30 AM. Mary Riedel, Executive Director of Women in Distress discussed how this organization is helping victims of domestic abuse become survivors. In another segment, Somy Ali, Founder of No More Tears, and board member, Laura Finley, discussed this organization's mission and how they are helping South Florida immigrant women who are victims of domestic abuse. 11/1, 10:30 AM. Dee Dee Green, Alex Llosas, and Beth Degy from "These Are All Our Children" discussed their organization's project to help find permanent homes for South Florida's children in foster care. In another segment, Violet Gonzalez and Clint Bower of MacTown discussed their program that helps people with special needs transition into independent living. 11/15, 10:30 AM. A report on the "Room To Grow" program sponsored by the Miami Dolphins and Rooms To Go furniture store that provides Miami Dolphins- themed bedroom furniture and accessories to needy children. On this report Miami Dolphins players delivered a bedroom set to boys of a former homeless family who had just moved into their new home through the BankAtlantic "Homeless to Homeowners" program. 11/15, 10:30 AM. This segment included a report on the Best Buddies program as it celebrates its 20th anniversary of providing young people with mental disabilities the opportunity to develop social and athletic skills and experience success. 12/13, 10:30 AM. This segment included a report on the Neighbors 4 Neighbors Adopt A Family for the Holidays program that for the past eighteen years has been partnering families in need with people, businesses and organizations willing to help make their holidays merry. The report show that with double-digit unemployment and foreclosures at record numbers, this holiday season may be one of the hardest one in recent times for many South Florida families. In another segment, Jessica Davis and Theresa Smith, from the local chapter of the American Red Cross discussed their "Stockings for the Troops" that sends holiday presents and goodies to military personnel across the world.

GOVERNMENT/INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS: Topics in this category include: international human rights; political corruption; compensation of public officials; and South Florida job outlook.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 10/18, 10:30 AM. Lilly Blanco & Isabel Viera from Words Take Flight discussed their project to break the Guinness World Record by reading the Declaration of Human Rights for ten days. Their goal is to increase awareness of international human rights. CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: CORRUPTION AT MIRAMAR CITY HALL: 11/23, 10 PM. This report analyzed the case of Miramar City Commissioner Josephus Eggelletion who has decided to plead guilty to federal corruption charges. CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: POLITICAL DOUBLE DIPPING: 12/1, 10 PM. This investigative report focused on various top Miami-Dade County officials who recently received substantial pay increases while also getting paid for off-duty jobs. CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: WHERE ARE THE JOBS? 12/3, 10 PM. This report looked at the unemployment situation in South Florida in light of the President Obama's speech on jobs and the economy.

PUBLIC SAFETY/CRIME: Topics in this category include: public drinking during the Super Bowl; local attorney's ponzi scheme; local victims of Madoff speak out; and local preacher is convicted of crime.

CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: ALCOHOL & SUPER BOWL/PRO BOWL: 10/21, 10 PM. This report revealed that the City of Fort Lauderdale is seeking to temporarily suspend a city ordinance against public drinking in order to allow the drinking of alcoholic beverages at outdoor places during the City's Super Bowl/Pro Bowl celebrations from January 29 through February 8, 2010. 11/23, 12/1 & 12/10, 10 PM. CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: THE DOWNFALL OF SCOTT ROTHSTEIN: This three-part report examined the case of Broward attorney Scott Rothstein who was officially charged with $1 million extortion fraud for his "ponzi scheme" and his relationships with various public officials. CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: THE MADOFF AFTERMATH: 12/8, 10 PM. This report focused on local victims of Bernard Madoff's investment fraud one year after the case came to light and showed how this crime has affected their lives. CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: THE REVEREND'S UNHOLY TEMPTATION: 12/8, 10 PM. follow-up report: 12/11, 10 PM. This report looked at the case of Reverend Gaston Smith of Liberty City who was accused of using a $10,000 Miami-Dade County grant awarded to his church for personal purposes. The follow-up report showed that Reverend Smith was found guilty of the crime.

HEALTH: Topics in this category include: benefit for breast cancer program; preventing youth cigarette smoking; preventing drunk driving; understanding World's AIDS Day; and health alert at local hotel.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 10/4, 9 AM. Sheri Martens, Elite Salon owner and volunteer, Carmen Martinez, national educator for Paul Mitchell discussed the "Cuts for the Cure" campaign to raise funds for the local chapter of the Susan G. Komen Foundation. 11/1, 10:30 AM. City of Hialeah Mayor Julio Robaina and Felicia Sutton from the Florida Department of Health discussed the City's Youth Tobacco Prevention Summit and their efforts to educate young people on the negative health effects of cigarette smoking. 12/13, 10:30 AM. Janet Mondschein and Helen Witty from M.A.D.D. (Mothers Against Drunk Driving) discussed how to prevent automobile accidents caused by drunk driving during the holidays. CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: WORLD AIDS DAY: 12/1, 10 PM. This report focused on World AIDS Day and reviewed the history of this disease that has claimed millions of lives for more than 40 years. CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: TOXIC HOTEL. 12/14, 10 PM. This report examined a health alert at Miami's Epic Hotel due to what was believed to be a water contamination problem that might have caused the death of one guest and the illness of three others.

CULTURE/ARTS: Topics in this category include: theatre program for artists and playwrights; offerings at Miami Book Fair International; significance of South Florida's Art Basel Festival; and holiday programs at historical house.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 10/4, 9 AM. Andre Sartin and Claudette Cannon, directors and playwrights with ACT 2 Productions discussed their new play "Just Breathe" -- a story of faith -- and their efforts to provide a venue for South Florida theatre artists and playwrights. 11/15, 10:30 AM. Local poet David Plum and Marionette artist Pablo Cano discussed their participation at the Miami Book Fair International and the many contributions that the Book Fair has made to enhance the love of literature in South Florida over the past 20 years. In another segment, Ken Hendel, art gallery owner, Al Razza, artist and Lindsay Brown, dancer, discussed their participation in South Florida's Art Basel Festival. They also mentioned how the festival is helping bring world-class visual and performing artists to South Florida and opening doors for local artists to be able to showcase their work. 12/13, 10:30 AM. Barbara Keith and Joe Smith discussed one of Fort Lauderdale's oldest treasures, the historical Stranahan House and the many cultural activities planned at this landmark during the holiday season.